

Membership Application Email

Please use the words "Membership Application" in the subject line of your email.

Dear Dependability Knowledge Hub Administrator,

I wish to apply for membership of the Dependability Knowledge Hub as described on your website and in your other communications. I agree to contribute advice to other Hub members promptly as requested. I understand the EPSRC Centre, its members, my parent organisation and the parent organisation of anyone I communicate with through the Hub are not responsible or liable for the accuracy of any information, advice or any other communication that I send or receive through the Hub and that I participate in the Hub as a professional individual. I attach a copy of my CV. I understand that my CV will be held in confidence by the Hub administration and only used for the purpose of refining the match of experts to queries.

My areas of expertise are as follows (delete those that do not apply and add any sub-categories you believe may help in refining your response to queries):

Reliability

Maintainability

Obsolescence

Standards

Supply Chain

No Fault Found

Autonomy/Self-repair

Systems Engineering

Cost Engineering

Risk/Uncertainty Modelling

FMEA/component and/or system degradation

Other (please specify other areas of Through-life Engineering Services expertise not listed above)

My sectors of expertise are (delete those that do not apply and add any sub-sectors you believe may help in refining your response to queries):

Marine

Aerospace

Automotive

Manufacturing Systems

Rail

Utilities

Oil and Gas

Defence

Information Systems

Other (please specify other sectors of Through-life Engineering Services expertise not listed above)

My preferred email contact details for Hub correspondence is:

Yours sincerely,

Please insert your name and any designation or address by which you wish to be known.